

Image
Coming
Soon

Best Practices for Addressing

Start Date: 6/24/2020 8:00 AM

End Date: 6/24/2020 10:00 AM

Best Practices for Addressing Performance & Discipline Jennifer Shoemaker, Underberg & Kessler and Kearston Lancy, Palmer Food Services Wednesday, June 24th Via Zoom Meeting 8:00am-10:00am One of the most important aspects of an HR person's duties is knowing when to discipline and what the law requires By the end of this session, participants will : • Understand New York law with respect to employment and discipline • Understand what policies are important to have internally and how to draft them • Understand how to investigate a workplace issue and how to issue disciplinary action Jennifer Shoemaker, Esq. Underberg & Kessler LLP Jennifer has practiced labor and employment law for the last 20 years. Jennifer represents private and public-sector clients in a variety of employment matters, including contract disputes, discrimination, retaliation, workplace issues and harassment. She also represents clients in complex national liability litigation and has conducted jury trials, bench trials and arbitration proceedings. Jennifer has authored several employment law-related articles and is a regular lecturer for the Society of Human Resource Management. Kearsten Lancy Palmer Foods Human Resources Manager <https://www.linkedin.com/in/kearston-lancy-a1568522/> This program has been pre-approved for 2.0 Professional Development Credits (PDCs) by the Society for Human Resource Management and 2.0 HR General credits by the HR Certification Institute.

Location(s)

Online Meeting
Meeting info
To be provided after registration
Rochester
New York
United States